

Program Announcement

For individuals interested in attending college or trade school, the UMCU Youth Scholarship program helps those dreams become a reality. Eligible high school seniors planning to continue their education in the Fall of 2025 may enter for a chance to awarded an individual scholarship by submitting an application.

Application Submission Period

Applications from qualified individuals will be accepted beginning on January 1, 2025 through February 28, 2025.

Statement of Scholarship Provisions

- The University of Michigan Credit Union (UMCU) will award ten (10) $1,000 scholarships to eligible recipients who are selected by UMCU based on their qualifications and responses to the questions listed on the application.
- For the selected individuals, UMCU will provide funds toward tuition and/or other educational expenses at an accredited college or technical school in the United States. The scholarship award will be payable directly to the student. The student will not be required to provide documentation (i.e., receipts, college acceptance letter, billing statement, etc.) to UMCU once the award has been disbursed.
- Ten (10) scholarships will be awarded in the spring of 2025. All selected scholarship recipients will be notified of their award within 30 days of the application close date, which is February 28, 2025. All scholarship applicants will be notified of the status (selected or not selected) of their scholarship application by March 31, 2025.
- Scholarship winners are solely responsible for all applicable federal, state, and local taxes.

Statement of Recipient Requirements

The University of Michigan Credit Union (UMCU) Scholarship program requires that the student:

- Be a 2025 graduating high school senior.
- Be a University of Michigan Credit Union member in good standing at the time the application is submitted. The high school senior student is also deemed eligible to apply and for a scholarship award if their parent(s) or guardian is a member of UMCU in good standing at the time the application is submitted. In that instance, the student understands that he/she must become a member and open a student account on or before the date on which the scholarship award will be presented.
- Intends to attend an accredited college, university, or technical school located in the United States beginning in the 2025/26 academic school year.

Every qualified candidate who submits an application will be considered. However, it is the stated intention of UMCU to review and judge applications using, but not limited to, the student's responses to essay questions which involve the following factors:

- Community activities and involvement
- Work (employment) experiences
- Commitment to learning about financial wellness*
- Academic achievement
- School participation, including extra curriculars (athletics, drama, music, etc.)

* It is required that scholarship applicants have read O.M.G. - Official Money Guide for Teenagers by authors Susan and Michael Beacham. This book is available for free upon request to members and is provided by UMCU's Financial Education Department. Books can be requested by sending an email to education@umcu.org.

Additional Information

- Along with the completed application, applications must also include the following:
 - A letter of reference from one individual who is not part of the applicant's family. Each letter should be between 400-600 words in length and include the individual's full name and contact information.
 - Examples could include a coach, teacher, mentor, employer, faith/non-faith leader, or neighbor.
 - The letter should address the applicant's character, achievements, and impact on others and the community.

Submissions

- The University of Michigan Credit Union is the sole sponsor of this scholarship program.
- Only one scholarship application will be accepted per student. In the event a student wishes to delete or revise a previously submitted application, he/she must contact UMCU using the information below.
- Upon receipt of a scholarship application, the student will be sent a confirmation email within three business days to the email address indicated on the application.
- All applicants are required to complete and submit their application using the secure submission portal provided by UMCU.
